Are any among you suffering?
Then let us pray.
Are any cheerful?
Then let us sing songs of praise.
Are any among you sick?
Then let us turn to each other for God's healing touch.
The prayer of faith will save us
And God will lift us up.

(This month from the Reformed Church tradition.)

Beloved in the Lord Jesus Christ, the Holy Supper which we are about to celebrate is a feast of remembrance, of communion, and of hope.

We come in remembrance that our Lord Jesus Christ was sent of the Father into the world to assume our flesh and blood, and to fulfill for us all obedience to the divine law, even to the bitter and shameful death of the cross.

By his death, resurrection and ascension, he established a new and eternal covenant of grace and reconciliation, that we might be accepted by God and never be forsaken by him.

We come to have communion with this same Christ who has promised to be with us always, even to the end of the world.

In the breaking of the bread he makes himself known to us as the true heavenly Bread that strengthens us unto eternal life. In the cup of blessing he comes to us as the Vine in whom we must abide if we are to bear fruit.

We come in hope, believing that this bread and this cup are a pledge and foretaste of the feast of love which we shall partake when his kingdom has fully come, when with unveiled face we shall behold him, made like unto him in his glory.

Since by his death, resurrection and ascension he has obtained for us the life-giving Spirit who unites us all in one body, so we are to receive this Supper in true love, mindful of the communion of saints. Come, for all things are now ready! The Lord be with you!

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts!

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

For it is holy and right to do so.

Let us pray. Holy and righteous God, with all the company of heaven, we worship and adore your most glorious name, saying together...

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might! Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest!

(Please hold the elements until all are served and partake together as directed by the pastors. Gluten-free wafers are available near the media booth.)

Go from this Table with our blessings.

Share the Bread and Wine with those unable to be with us.

Go with reverence and care, offering these gifts with our love and according to the command of Jesus who said:

"Do this in remembrance of me."
