

How can I find out more information?

Did you know the Endowment Fund...

- Provides members and friends the opportunity to give a gift of a lifetime
- Does not take significant wealth to make a gift
- Allows both small and large gifts to be used to serve God's purpose
- Is structured so that gifts can be made while you are alive so you can see the work being done
- Allows gifts to be made through your estate that establishes your legacy

Sharing your legacy through a gift is an expression of the wise stewardship of the personal assets that God has provided us

Additional information or questions on CCTV's Endowment Fund, how the Fund is structured, how the money is invested, options for designating your gift and planning ideas are available by contacting a member of the Endowment Panel;

Endowment Fund

"Share Your Legacy with God"

Return a portion of what God has blessed you with to enhance our future work

Endowment Fund Purpose

- Expand existing and enable new areas of ministry and outreach of the church.
- Support mission projects.
- Provide for special needs of the Worship and Music activities of the church.
- Provide financial support beyond the church's annual operating budget.
- Support special needs for capital improvement, maintenance and repair needs of the church property.
- Receive requests and follow the donor's wishes for how the money might be used over multiple years.

Contribution of Gifts

In general, most gifts will be undesignated and used to meet the most critical needs of our church, following the guidelines of the Endowment Fund.

Very large gifts of a certain size can be designated or set aside for certain purposes.

Investment of monies from gifts are conservatively invested at Fidelity and managed by the CCTV Finance Team.

"Yes you will be enriched in every way so that you can always be generous. And when we take your gifts to those who need them, they will thank God"
2 Corinthians 9:12
