	Gently and patiently, God, you are calling.
	Carefully and persistently, God, you are calling.
	In grieving and in praise, God, you are calling.
	Through dawn and midday, God, you are calling.
	Unexpectedly and planned, God, you are calling.
	In a still small voice and in power, God, you are calling.
	Spontaneously and prepared, God, you are calling.
	Our God is eager to share with us, wherever we are in our journey.
	May we be diligent to listen. God, you are calling.

*Hymn #476 You Walk Along Our Shoreline AURELIA

Communion Litany (This month from the Presbyterian Tradition.) Rev. Brown

Friends, this is the joyful feast of the people of God!

People will come from east and west, and from north and south, and sit at the table in the kingdom of God.

This is the Lord's table. Our Savior invites those who trust him to share the feast which he has prepared.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Let us pray: Holy Lord, Father almighty, everlasting God: you have formed the universe in your wisdom, and created all things by your power; and you have set us in families on the earth to live with you in faith. We praise you for the good gifts of bread and wine, and for the table you spread in the world as a sign of your love for all people in Christ. Great and wonderful are your works, Lord God almighty. Your ways are just and true. With people of faith from all times and places, we lift our hearts in joyful praise, for you alone are holy:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,

Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest!

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest!

Holy Father: we thank you for your son Jesus, who lived with us sharing joy and sorrow. He told your story, healed the sick, and was a friend of sinners. Obeying you, he took up his cross and was murdered by those he loved. We praise you that he is not dead, but is risen to rule the world; and that he is still the friend of sinners. We trust him to overcome every power to hurt or divide us, so that, when you bring in your promised kingdom, we will celebrate victory with him.

Remembering the Lord Jesus, we break bread and share one cup, announcing his death for the sins of the world, and telling his resurrection to all people and nations.

Great God: give your Holy Spirit in the breaking of the bread, so that we may be drawn together, and joined to Christ the Lord, receive new life, and remain his glad and faithful people until we feast with him in glory. Amen.
