Dear Church Family,

After much anticipation, construction is well underway in Hilltop Hideaway, the new Habitat neighborhood in Loudon. Volunteers from CCTV have been assisting with the construction of the “Apostle Build,” the first home in the neighborhood that is sponsored by 12 area churches, including CCTV.

Why is this important? Meet Salinas....a single mom with two sons and a daughter (ages 16, 12, & 7). This family will receive the Apostle Build home. Her family’s culture is Puerto Rican and she is a graduate of Lenoir City High School. She is employed as a stocker at Walmart in Lenoir City. Salinas has already completed her “sweat equity” hours with Loudon County Habitat, but she is continuing to volunteer with Habitat to ensure that others have the opportunity to own their own home. She is so very grateful and excited to know that her family will have safe and secure housing thanks to YOUR support!

Here’s the BIG NEWS...CCTV is sponsoring our own home build as part of this new neighborhood. This mission outreach project has been in the planning phase for over a year and, thanks to the generosity of our church family, is now becoming a reality. There’s something very special about watching a house go from a foundation to a finished home—and knowing you had a hand in making it happen. In addition to the financial support for this home we want YOU, our church family, to be in prayer for this construction and for the family that will receive this home. We will share pictures and other information as the progress continues throughout the building period.

Join us in celebrating the start of our “CCTV Habitat House” on Sunday, October 4, when you will have an opportunity to write a Scripture verse or a blessing on boards that will be part of the home’s construction. Then join us out on the build site, work alongside other volunteers, learn something new, and literally help build a home that will change a family’s future. To view pictures of the current work, see the project work schedule and learn about how you can get involved, more details are provided on page 4 of this newsletter.

Whether you’re an experienced builder or have never picked up a hammer, there’s a place for you on the Habitat build site. The Habitat construction team will provide direction and put you to work where you can make the biggest impact. We will be scheduling a women’s workday and other special events, so watch the e-news for details!

Blessings,

Nancy Gregg
CCTV Director of Missions

SAVE THE DATE - Cultivate Gatherings

As we are launching our Cultivate Campaign, we are inviting you to attend one of several in-home meetings. The purpose of these meetings is to communicate “up close and personal” our vision of the future for our church’s ministry and how the Cultivate campaign is tied directly to it. These meetings will be informational and inspirational in nature and will last about 75 minutes. We will have light refreshments. You will not be asked to make a financial commitment at these meetings.

These gatherings will be held on October 27, 28 and 29, so mark your calendar! You will have an opportunity to register for a specific session later.

Please continue to use your daily Cultivate Campaign Prayer Calendar as our church grows together through this effort .

you are God’s cultivated field,
God’s building.”

I’m Fine...NOT!

By Jeannine Wolf

As I think about this month, my grandchildren will be trying to decide what to be for Halloween. I have noticed the decision process is changing. When they were younger, they knew right away what they wanted to be: a ghost, a skeleton, Minnie Mouse or a princess; but as they mature, they realize they have more options. So the process of deciding who or what they are going to be is getting longer and more involved. They also now realize it is a pretend situation. For one night, they can be that superhero or anybody or anything, and it does not have to make sense to anyone—even themselves. They get to choose with no questions asked.

I started realizing that we adults basically do the same thing. When we ask someone who we know is hurting through grief or any other loss, we typically say, “How are you doing?” The recipient automatically says “I’m fine” whether they are or not. I received this response from someone recently who I know was really hurting. I said “No, really, how are you really doing?” They spent the next five minutes trying to convince me. Like the grandkids, they are choosing. I sometimes think they are going through the motions and they are really not fine. They may need someone to help them navigate through this difficult time but are afraid to admit it. You might not need us yet, but don’t worry. Stephen Ministry will be there if you do, and when YOU are ready. Just remember, we will continue to care, think and pray for you.

Honoring Those Who Serve: Pastor Appreciation Month

Each October, churches across the country observe Pastor Appreciation Month, a time set aside to recognize the men and women who dedicate their lives to serving God and caring for others.

Pastoral ministry reaches far beyond the Sunday morning worship service. Pastors are often present during some of the most meaningful and challenging moments in the lives of individuals and families. They celebrate with people during weddings, baptisms, and other milestones, while also offering comfort during times of illness, grief, and loss. They visit those who are homebound or hospitalized, counsel individuals and families, pray with those facing difficult circumstances, teach and preach, and provide spiritual guidance and encouragement. Much of this work takes place quietly and away from the public eye, yet it can have a lasting impact on the lives of those they serve.

This month, the Community Church at Tellico Village is especially grateful for pastors: Steve Prevatte, John Orr, Katie Morgan-Harper, Matt Agnew and Ingrid Schalk, and the many ways they serve both the congregation and the community.

Steve Prevatte is the senior pastor serving the church for 10 years guiding the church in its spiritual development as well as leading and advising day to day operations of a 1000+ church membership.

John Orr is the Minister of Worship and Music who has been with the church since 2010. He directs the chancel and bell choirs and serves as the executive director of the Fine Arts Concert Series that reaches out to the entire community. This program is funded entirely through the annual donor drive and ticket sales.

Katie Morgan-Harper leads the church with mission opportunities, women's and men's ministry programs, Bible studies, and several membership engagement activities.

Matt Agnew has become a valued part of the church family, joining the pastoral staff in July, bringing a heart for ministry and a desire to serve others through congregational care and membership engagement.

Ingrid Schalk has been a valuable pastor visiting homebound and care facility residents. She is appreciated for her faithful service, compassion, and commitment to helping others.

Together, our pastors provide spiritual leadership while seeking to be a source of hope, encouragement, and support to those around them.

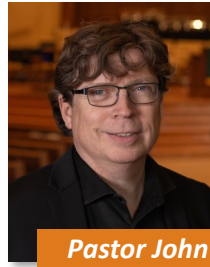

Pastor Appreciation Month is also an opportunity to recognize the important role pastors play in the broader community. Churches are often places where people turn for support during times of celebration and times of need. Pastors are privileged to walk alongside people from many different backgrounds and circumstances, offering a listening ear, a word of encouragement, and a reminder that no one has to face life's challenges alone.

While October provides a special opportunity to say "thank you," appreciation for pastoral service is something that can be expressed throughout the year. A kind word, a note of encouragement, or simply remembering pastors and their families in prayer can mean a great deal.

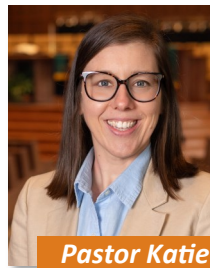

As the Community Church at Tellico Village celebrates Pastor Appreciation Month, we give thanks for Pastors Steve, John, Katie, Matt and Ingrid, and all those who have answered the call to pastoral ministry. Their dedication, compassion, and willingness to serve are gifts to the church and to the communities in which they minister.

FINANCE NEWS

Looking for a Few Good Men and/or Women

Are you looking for a way to get more involved in the church?

Have you considered joining the Finance Team?

The team meets once a month the third Wednesday of the month on 10:30am. The team is responsible for, and the oversight of, the financial operations of the church. The financial assistant is an ex-officio member of the team while a pastor provides guidance to the team. Its leader is elected by the membership and also serves as the church treasurer. We are led by the Biblical mandate: to fulfill Jesus' teachings to faithfully and responsibly use the monies entrusted to our Church's ministry. The words of 2 Corinthians 8:19-20 guide the team, "...he was chosen by the churches to accompany us as we carry the offering, which we administer in order to honor the Lord himself...We want to avoid any criticism of the way we administer this generous gift."

Grant Update

The Lilly Foundation announced the 2026 Lilly Endowment Clergy Renewal Program award winners on September 4. Unfortunately, our proposal for Pastor Steve's 2027 sabbatical leave was not among those selected for funding. Despite this disappointment, Pastor Steve will still be able to take his sabbatical using the funds our church provides in our annual budget.

Prayer Shawls

The "women who love to knit" are busy as we speak making new shawls to be on display and delivery at the Fall Prayer Shawl Sunday Giveaway. However, you don't have to wait until November 22 to give a shawl as a gift. In the Puckett Bldg. there is a closet where the shawls are kept. If you call Jan Martin (865-458-0755) or Candy Smith (865-458-1516, church office), either lady will be happy to direct you and help you choose a shawl.

The ladies have all of October plus most of November to finish their creations. Come to worship for "Prayer Shawl Sunday" on November 22 and choose a lovely shawl for someone you care about.
